

Parenting about alcohol and drugs

- Learn about the current alcohol and drugs of choice and talk to your kids.
- Listen; let them share their feelings and experiences.
- Learn the laws and remind them of the consequences of getting caught.
- Refer your kids for medical and physiological evaluations as necessary.