AITKEN ARTS PLAZA STAGE

1pm | Opening Ceremony

1:15pm | El Sol Academy

Kindergarten through fifth grade students perform and delight in traditional costumes.

2:15pm | Calle 4 Cumbia Electric

This high-energy Santa Ana band plays songs that highlight the pride and strengths of the Mexican/American community

3:15pm | Ballet Folklórica Estrellas de OCSA

Dancers from Orange County School of the Arts paint the vibrant history of Mexico through folk and traditional dance.

4:15pm | Primero Sueño Ensemble

This visionary band sings original songs inspired by resilience and nature that KCRW calls "beautiful and wonderful."

5:15pm | El Santo Golpe

Experience the world of Afro-Latin music, with infusions of cumbia, son jarocho, garifuna, African drum beats, poetry, and folkloric dance.

PERFORMERS COURT STAGE

2pm | Los Sanchez Mariachi Quartet

The Sanchez family – Lino, Esbeyde, Erandi and Eraydelin – bring beautiful mariachi music from their Anaheim home to the entire region.

3pm | Mariachi Los Santos de Santa Ana High School

Founded in 2000, this stunning ensemble from one of Orange County's oldest high schools preserves the rich traditions of Mexico's musical culture.

4pm | Felipe Orozco & Mariachi Tierra Azteca

This band has delighted all ages across Southern California with popular mariachi songs. Latin pop and Banda hits.

5pm | Ruby Clouds

Dream along to the original songs of this R&B/Rock duo of siblings who grew up on both sides of the border and sing in both English and Spanish.

6pm | Daniela y Fito

This father-daughter duo spreads the beauty of Mexican folk songs with a sound that will melt your heart.

WELLS FARGO STAGE

2:45pm | Relámpago Del Cielo

For more than 40 years, this non-profit dance community has ignited the joy of Latin culture in Orange County.

3:45pm | The Dream Act

Students, alumni, and faculty from Middle College High School and Santa Ana College blend pop, rock en Español and cumbia.

4:45pm | MEXIKA (Music & Dance of Ancient Mexico)

With brightly colored traditional feather garments and ancient instruments, this high-powered ensemble reflects the ancient culture they celebrate.

5:45pm | Grupo Folklórico Fusión Mexicana

Based in Ventura County, these dancers are more than just great performers: they also have a deep passion for education and community activism.

6:45pm | Cambalache

Close out the night in the spirit of the fandango with the East LA-based group playing high-energy son jarocho music from Veracruz.

DESCRIPTION

CCM Cerritos College presents to you, its Pre-health Conference: Medicina Para Todos! This event is geared toward community college and high school students who may be interested in going into the healthcare field. We are also including workshops for their parents, as many individuals are not always aware of the challenging obstacles and requirements that their children must meet. Some workshops we'll have available to students, will be about how to network with others and the importance of staying involved, a suturing workshop, a nursing panel, and a medical student panel. Additionally, we will be having doctors, nurses, and professors speaking about vital information that is extremely useful and inspiring for students.

This event is completely free! Breakfast and lunch will be provided as well!

A permit is required to be able to park in the Cerritos College parking, it is recommended to park in Lot C, a full day permit is $2.

Check in begins at 8am, please arrive promptly in order to get
