

State and Federal Sources of Financial Aid for Future Teachers

Golden State Teacher Grant

Up to $20,000 one-time grant to support students enrolled in CTC-approved teacher preparation programs. Must sign a Teaching Agreement that commits you to teaching in a “high-need field” at a “priority school” for 4 out of the 5 years after obtaining a credential.

Cal Grants

Provides funds that pay for tuition and fees to students meeting financial and academic requirements.

Middle Class Scholarships

For undergraduates and students pursuing a teaching credential with family assets up to $184,000 and income up to $184,000.

TEACH Grants

Up to $4,000/year to students who are completing or plan to complete coursework needed to begin a career in teaching and intend to teach in public or private schools serving low-income students.

Most require a completed FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) or CADAA (California Dream Act Application).

Visit California Department of Education and CSAC \(California Student Aid Commission\) webpages for more details, application links, and additional sources of financial aid for future educators. →

