

Growing Up Punk Rock: A Panel

Thursday, December 5, 2019 | 5:30 - 7:30 P.M.
Center for American War Letters Archives
Leatherby Libraries, Lower Level

THEN and NOW

Featuring Stacy Russo, Angelita Figueroa Salas,
Laura Beth Bachman, Kathy Rodgers, Kirsten (Bruce) Meekins, and Monica Carapello

We Were Going to Change the World is a book that celebrates women's voices from the Southern California punk rock scene of the 1970s and 1980s. Join the author, Stacy Russo, and several of the amazing women from the book for a panel discussion on their experiences and how growing up punk rock influenced their lives.

Book signing to follow the panel.

Refreshments will be served.

BONUS: Film Screening

After the panel, join us across the hall for a screening of a 30-minute film by Eric Blair, of The Blairing Out with Eric Blair Show, about seminal punk musician Casey Royer.

This event is free and open to the public

Leatherby Libraries, Chapman University | One University Dr. Orange, CA 92866

For more information, contact Rachel Karas at (714) 532-6027 or karas@chapman.edu

www.chapman.edu/library

Leatherby Libraries