

PAWS, CLAWS and PRAHA

photography from the prague zoo

Exhibit runs Feb. 1 - May 24
Reception at 4 pm, Friday, Feb. 22nd

THIS SHOW is the result of Livi Dom's '20 studies of Documentary Photography at Anglo-American University in Prague. She focused her final study on the globally renowned Prague Zoological Gardens, going almost every week to the zoo to capture the incredible images of these animals.

LIVI DOM is a junior at Chapman University, studying Television Writing and Production as well as Documentary Film, and she is working towards a dream career combining her loves of photography and animals. When she is not behind the camera, you can usually find her biking around campus or going to Disneyland.
