

Musco Center for the Arts and Leatherby Libraries Present

A Conversation with Kishi Bashi and Dr. Stephanie Takaragawa

Wednesday, February 27, 7pm • FREE

The Center for American War Letters
Leatherby Libraries

Kishi Bashi (Kaoru Ishibashi), internationally acclaimed composer and songwriter, and Dr. Stephanie Takaragawa, Chapman University associate dean of Wilkinson College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences, will have an in-depth conversation about Japanese-American incarceration during WWII. Kishi Bashi's new project — Omoi-yari: a Songfilm — is a genre breaking, artistic exploration that fuses history, music, and the complexities of the human condition.

Thursday, February 28, 7:30pm

Kishi Bashi: String Quartet Live!

Musco Center for the Arts
Tickets available at muscocenter.org

Munemitsu Family Collection On Display

PARKING & DIRECTIONS: chapman.edu/about/maps-directions

One University Drive, Orange, CA 92866 | Artists, dates, and programs subject to change.

Co-sponsored by:

Leatherby Libraries

Fish Interfaith Center

This event is made possible through funds from the Yamagishi Endowment for Asian Studies