

MARK CHAPIN JOHNSON
Profile

Military Service

1964-1971, United States Army, Sergeant, 82nd Airborne, Fort Bragg, North Carolina
Honorably discharged. Infantry Medic and Riot Control NCO

Business Experience

1968-1969, Founder, Partner and Registered Principal, Eastland Securities Corporation.
West Covina, California, a regional NASD firm specializing in small initial public offerings

1970-Present, Founder and Trustee of the Mark Chapin Johnson Trust, Anaheim, California, a developer, builder and owner of various small commercial and residential properties in the Western US

1974-2007, Founder, Chairman and CEO of Chapin Specialty Healthcare.
Nationwide distributor of critical care and emergency pharmaceuticals to hospital pharmacies. Merged with AmerisourceBergen in 2005, a Fortune 25 company

1990, Orange County Entrepreneur of the Year, Ernst & Young, Inc. Magazine and Merrill Lynch competition

Community Involvement

1980-Present, Founder, Chairman and CEO of the Mark Chapin Johnson Foundation, a 501(C3) Public Benefit Foundation active in various philanthropic activities. The Foundation has distributed several million dollars to a variety of community organizations nationally.

Past Chairman of the Board and CEO of the Orange County Performing Arts Center
Actively managed the Center and replaced the organization President when necessary
During tenure obtained a gift of land to build a world class 2000 seat concert hall and personally raised over 100 million dollars towards the construction budget after retaining Cesar Peli as the design architect. The hall successfully opened in September of 2006

Member of the Board of Directors of Boys Hope/Girls Hope (foster homes that assist youth from childhood through college)

2004-2010, Chairman, The Institute for the Study of Media and the Public Interest at the Dodge College of Media Arts, Chapman University, Orange, California

Member of the Board of Directors of Pacific Symphony Orchestra

Past Member of the Board of Directors of YMCA of Orange County

Past Trustee of Olive Crest Treatment Centers (homes for abused children)

Former Trustee and Secretary of the Board of St. Margaret's Episcopal School. San Juan Capistrano, California

Past Chairman and Board member of Forest Home Christian Conference Center. Forest Falls, California

Chairman Emeritus of the Southern California Entrepreneurship Academy which sponsors and mentors young entrepreneurs and university students throughout Southern California.

Active in various projects for Children's Hospital of Orange County, Opera Pacific, and ATSC (Assessment, Treatment & Services Center)

2002-Present, Trustee, World Affairs Council, Orange County, California

2004-Present, Trustee, Chapman University, Orange, California

2003-Present, Overseer, Hoover Institution, Stanford University, California

Political Activities

1973-1976, Orange County Republican Central Committee Member

1973, Member, Governor Ronald Reagan's Speakers' Bureau for Proposition 1. Spoke and debated extensively throughout Southern California on behalf of the Governor's tax initiative

1973 and various times since, Member, Republican State Central Committee of California

1974, Primary candidate for US Congress, Mission Viejo, Orange County, California

1974, Campaign Co-Chair for the Committee to Elect Brad Gates, Sheriff of Orange County, California

1975, Co-Chairman and Organizer of Disneyland Gala Honoring then Vice President Gerald Ford

1988, Co-Chairman, Committee to elect Christopher Cox, US Congress, Orange County, California

1998, Co-Chairman, Committee to elect Michael Carona Sheriff of Orange County

1998, Co-founded the New Majority Committee in Orange County. The organization is comprised of approximately 100 of the community's most successful CEO's, professionals and leaders dedicated to improving the Republican Party and its appeal to all voters. Largest, most successful Republican political fund raising organization in the country

2001-2002, State Finance Chairman for Richard Riordan for Governor Campaign. Most successful gubernatorial fund raising effort in US political history. Raised 15 million dollars in 5 months

2001-2002, California Co-Chairman for John Thune, Jim Talent and Norm Coleman campaigns for the US Senate. All three were successfully elected to the US Senate

2002-2003, Finance Co-Chairman for Rosario Marin, Treasurer of the United States campaign for the US Senate in California

1999-2000 and 2003-2004 Co-Chair for various California fund raising activities for Bush-Cheney 2000 and 2004

2006-2008, California Co-Chair, Mitt Romney for President Campaign

2009-2010, California Co-Chair and Finance Committee, Meg Whitman for Governor.

2010-2012, California Co-Chair, Mitt Romney for President Campaign

Academic History

1964, Graduated Pasadena High School, Pasadena, California

1965-1967, Pasadena City College, Social Science Major

1968-1971, Citrus College, Glendora, California A.A. Degree, Social Sciences

1971-1972, California State University at Fullerton, Political Science major

2002-2004, Chapman University College, Orange, California B.A. Degree, Summa cum Laude , Social Sciences, triple concentration, History, Political Science & Organizational Leadership

2008, Claremont Graduate University, Master of Arts Degree in Politics

2012, Claremont Graduate University, PhD in Political Science. Fields of expertise: American Politics focused on the Founding and Constitutional Law and the Comparative politics of the Middle East. Published dissertation on American energy policy through an assessment of Congressional decision making in formulating national ethanol policy. Frequent panelist and contributor on Adelphia National Cable Television programs Week in Review and Beyond the Beltway

Frequent panelist and contributor on KOCE Public Broadcasting Television, Huntington Beach, for "The Real Orange" program

1999, University of California Irvine Graduate School of Business, Commencement Speaker

Published "State of Confusion" essay on California politics; Wall Street Journal, 14 July 2005, National Edition

2004, May, Chairman, host & MC of Global Citizen Award Dinner at Chapman University. Invited and introduced President Jose Maria Aznar of Spain to Orange County.

Created, organized and hosted a "Road to the White House" speakers series at Chapman University College, fall 2004, in conjunction with an upper division political science course, POSC312

Speakers included: Susan Estrich, Kenneth Starr, Jerry Brown, Garry South, George Gorton, Ambassador George Argyros and Chairman of the University of California Regents, Gerry Parsky amongst others

2004 Subject of a two part, two week special airing of, "Dialogue with Doti" KOCE Public Broadcasting Television production interview examining, in depth, "The Road to the White House" political science course at Chapman University

2008, Instructor, Senior Macro-Economics, St Margaret's Episcopal School, San Juan Capistrano, California

2010 and 2012, La Sierra University Business School guest presenter