ARTICLE I - NAME

This organization shall be known as Women of Chapman.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

The purpose of Women of Chapman shall be to raise funds for Chapman University and to be goodwill ambassadors throughout the community.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Women dedicated to the purpose of Women of Chapman shall be eligible for membership in the organization on approval of the membership application by the Steering Committee.

SECTION 2. Members of Women of Chapman shall consist of the following classes: Active, Couture, Haute Couture, and Honorary Lifetime as described in the membership roster.

SECTION 3. Active members are invited to all Women of Chapman programs and are encouraged to participate in a minimum of two events each year. Active members shall attend and/or contribute to Christmas at The Ritz.

SECTION 4. Couture members shall be invited to all Women of Chapman programs but will not be required to attend. Couture members shall attend and/or contribute to Christmas at The Ritz.

SECTION 5. Haute Couture members shall be invited to all Women of Chapman programs but will not be required to attend. Haute Couture members shall attend and/or contribute to Christmas at The Ritz.

SECTION 6. An Honorary Lifetime member shall be an individual to whom a particular tribute is deemed desirable. This may be conferred on any individual by recommendation of the Steering Committee.

ARTICLE IV - STEERING COMMITTEE

SECTION 1. Number - The Steering Committee consists of a minimum of ten members who are members in good standing with Women of Chapman. They shall have various roles, responsibilities, and expectations as set forth in these governance guidelines. Steering Committee members are expected to attend a minimum of three scheduled Steering Committee meetings annually. Steering Committee members shall serve on at least one committee and are expected to attend events, programs, and fundraising opportunities of the organization.

SECTION 2. Terms - The term(s) of office for elected steering committee members is one year, July 1 to June 30. The term of office for President, President-elect, and Parliamentarian shall be two years. The past president shall serve as Parliamentarian.

SECTION 3. Removal, Resignation and Filling Vacancies - Any member of the Steering Committee not in good standing may be removed at any time by a vote of two-thirds of the Steering Committee. In the case of the removal of any Steering Committee member, a new Steering Committee member shall serve until the end of the predecessor's term at the meeting at which the other Steering Committee member is removed.

Any Steering Committee member may resign by giving written notice to the President to Women of Chapman's email or mailing address.

In the case of a vacancy in the office of the President, the President-elect shall immediately assume the duties, filling the office until the end of the term, and serve the following term of President for two years. A vacancy then arises in the President-elect. All vacancies, except that of President, shall be filled by appointment of the Steering Committee as soon as practical. Each officer so appointed shall serve until the end of the term.

SECTION 4. Nominations - The Nominating Committee shall consist of five members plus one member to serve as an alternate from the Steering Committee. The Chair of the Nominating Committee shall be the Parliamentarian, who is the immediate Past President, and shall serve for two consecutive years. If the Parliamentarian cannot serve, the President shall select another Past President to serve as Chair of the Nominating Committee. The Parliamentarian will call for volunteers to serve on the Nominating Committee from those attending the March meeting. If there are more than four volunteers, the final slate will be determined by a vote of the Steering Committee members during the meeting. No member shall serve a consecutive term on the Nominating Committee, except for the Parliamentarian.

The Nominating Committee shall meet to select the nominees for the Steering Committee consisting of officers, chairs, members-at-large and emeritus members. A slate for the Steering Committee for the following year will be presented by the Nominating Committee for election by the Steering Committee at the May Steering Committee meeting.

SECTION 5. Categories – The Steering Committee is comprised of the following four categories of members: officers, chairs, members-at-large and emeritus members.

ARTICLE V - MEETINGS AND QUORUM

- C. Roster - The Roster chair shall update the annual roster in collaboration with the Membership Chair and the University Liaison.

ARTICLE VIII – MEMBERS-AT-LARGE

Members-at-large serve on the Steering Committee and are expected to attend a minimum of three scheduled Steering Committee meetings annually. Steering Committee members shall serve on at least one committee and are expected to attend events, programs, and fundraising opportunities of the organization. Members-at-large have full voting responsibilities and privileges.

ARTICLE IX - EMERITUS MEMBERS

A member who has served on the Steering Committee for six consecutive years is eligible to become an Emeritus Member, as approved by the Steering Committee unless such member is elected and agrees to continue to serve on the Steering Committee for an additional term(s).

Emeritus Members may attend all Steering Committee meetings in an ex-officio capacity and may serve on a committee(s).

ARTICLE X - APPOINTED MEMBERS OF THE STEERING COMMITTEE

The University Liaison serves at the discretion of those who have appointed them.

SECTION 1. University Liaison - University Advancement designates a University staff member to serve as a liaison between Chapman University and Women of Chapman and shall be a non-voting member of the Steering Committee.

SECTION 2. The Benefit, Programs, and Membership Tea Chairs shall work directly with the University Liaison under the guidelines of Chapman University to recommend, plan and produce programs, make speaker selections, and arrange venues, catering, and hospitality. All contracting will go through the liaison's office.

ARTICLE XI - COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. Members of Women of Chapman in good-standing may serve on committees.

SECTION 2. The following are established committees.

- A. Benefit - This committee shall commit to support Christmas at The Ritz, attend planning meetings, procure auction items, generate underwriting, sponsorships, and ticket sales, as well as plan and set up Christmas at The Ritz at the direction of the Benefit Chair and in collaboration with the University Liaison.
