

SPRING 2024 Research Workshop Series

As Wilkinson College's research culture matures, it is important to create opportunities for shared conversation and information exchange. Come meet fellow grant seekers and recipients and learn more about various topics connected to sponsored research.

INTERNAL GRANT FUNDING

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 12-1:30PM, ROOSEVELT HALL 121

In this workshop with Allison DeVries, Manager of Research Development and Administration, we will discuss two Internal Grant Funding opportunities: Wilkinson College's Scholarly/ Creative Activity Faculty Grant (due March 8, 2024) and the Office of Research's Faculty Grant for Research, Scholarship and Creative Activities (due March 15, 2024). We will review the application requirements for both programs and discuss elements of a great proposal. Current grant recipients will be in attendance to discuss their applications and projects. Bring your lunch; we'll provide drinks, chips, and dessert.

BUILDING A HEALTHY RESEARCH CULTURE

TUESDAY, MARCH 5, 12-1:30 PM, ROOSEVELT HALL 121

In this collaborative workshop, Allison DeVries, Manager of Research Development and Administration, and David Krausman, Graduate Programs Coordinator, will facilitate a roundtable discussion to generate ideas for building a best practices guide for cultivating a healthy research culture with students. Allison and David will ask attendees prompting questions about group collaboration, leadership, professional development, research integrity, supervision and mentorship, well-being, and DEI. Bring your lunch; we'll provide drinks, chips, and dessert.

COMPLIANCE AND WORKING WITH THE IRB

TUESDAY, APRIL 2, 12-1:30 PM, ARGYROS FORUM 201 OR ZOOM

This workshop, led by IRB Chair Dr. Rebecca Tukachinsky Forster, will cover the following topics:

1. What kind of scholarship/creative activity/research needs IRB approval
2. Types of IRB review: Exempt, Expedited, Full Board
3. Student Projects
4. What researchers need to know about using audio or video recordings for research
