* As per the Graduate Catalog, only students registered for June comprehensive exams and who have fulfilled all other degree requirements may 'walk short' and participate in May commencement exercises. Students taking fall, winter, or spring comprehensive exams participate in commencement exercises the following May.

* Comprehensive/qualifying exam exception to University's continuous enrollment policy: Students taking comprehensive/qualifying exams in the months of January, February, June, or September may do so without being continuously enrolled at the time of the exam provided they were continuously enrolled as required by the University in the immediate, preceding required term (fall/spring in 9-month programs; fall/spring/summer in 12-month programs). See Graduate Catalog, Academic Policies and Procedures section on Continuous Enrollment for more information.
