Heartbeat of Mexico BIG IDEAS: May 3rd

Booming Bandas of Los Angeles

Women Musicians in Oaxacan Philharmonic Brass Bands

Dr. Xóchitl C. Chávez

UC Riverside • Assistant Professor, Department of Music

In this talk, Dr. Xóchitl Chávez focuses on second-generation Zapotec brass bands in Los Angeles County. She documents how women and youth now fill the ranks of musicians and new leadership.

Heartbeat of Mexico BIG IDEAS: May 10th

The Trailblazing Women of Mariachi

Dr. Leonor Xóchitl Pérez

is a leading proponent and preservationist of women's mariachi history.

It is well known that mariachi music is a traditionally male genre. However, for over 100 years, women have actively performed this music and fought for their inclusion. Based on 20 years of original research, Dr. Leonor Xóchitl Pérez will present the history and stories of these Mexican and American mariachi women.

AITKEN ARTS PLAZA STAGE

1pm | Opening Ceremony

1:15pm | El Sol Academy
Kindergarten through fifth grade students perform and delight in traditional costumes.

2:15pm | Calle 4 Cumbia Electric
This high-energy Santa Ana band plays songs that highlight the pride and strengths of the Mexican/American community

3:15pm | Ballet Folklórica Estrellas de OCSA
Dancers from Orange County School of the Arts paint the vibrant history of Mexico through folk and traditional dance.

4:15pm | Primero Sueño Ensemble
This visionary band sings original songs inspired by resilience and nature that KCRW calls "beautiful and wonderful."

5:15pm | El Santo Golpe
Experience the world of Afro-Latin music, with infusions of cumbia, son jarocho, garifuna, African drum beats, poetry, and folkloric dance.

PERFORMERS COURT STAGE

2pm | Los Sanchez Mariachi Quartet
The Sanchez family – Lino, Esbeyde, Erandi and Eraydelin – bring beautiful mariachi music from their Anaheim home to the entire region.

3pm | Mariachi Los Santos de Santa Ana High School
Founded in 2000, this stunning ensemble from one of Orange County's oldest high schools preserves the rich traditions of Mexico's musical culture.

4pm | Felipe Orozco & Mariachi Tierra Azteca
This band has delighted all ages across Southern California with popular mariachi songs. Latin pop and Banda hits.

5pm | Ruby Clouds
Dream along to the original songs of this R&B/Rock duo of siblings who grew up on both sides of the border and sing in both English and Spanish.

6pm | Daniela y Fito
This father-daughter duo spreads the beauty of Mexican folk songs with a sound that will melt your heart.

WELLS FARGO STAGE

2:45pm | Relámpago Del Cielo
For more than 40 years, this non-profit dance community has ignited the joy of Latin culture in Orange County.

3:45pm | The Dream Act
Students, alumni, and faculty from Middle College High School and Santa Ana College blend pop, rock en Español and cumbia.

4:45pm | MEXIKA (Music & Dance of Ancient Mexico)
With brightly colored traditional feather garments and ancient instruments, this high-powered ensemble reflects the ancient culture they celebrate.

5:45pm | Grupo Folklórico Fusión Mexicana
Based in Ventura County, these dancers are more than just great performers; they also have a deep passion for education and community activism.

6:45pm | Cambalache
Close out the night in the spirit of the fandango with the East LA-based group playing high-energy son jorocho music from Veracruz.
