Fiesta Mendez: October 14 (Saturday)

- FREE, community event in Orange to honor the 70-year anniversary of Mendez v. Westminster
- Seeking volunteers to help with the event on Saturday—e.g., to be at tables hand out flowers and/or direct people to guests from the Mendez case who will be present

A decorative poster for the 'Fiesta Mendez!' event. The poster features a central illustration of a colorful sugar skull with a mustache. To the right of the skull is a scroll that reads 'SATURDAY OCTOBER 14, 2017'. Further right is a dark circular badge with the text 'FREE EVENTS! JOIN THE CELEBRATION!'. The top of the poster says 'Mendez Museum Without Walls Presents' in a red banner, followed by 'PIESTA MENDEZ!' in large, stylized letters. The bottom section contains a list of activities with their respective times and locations. At the very bottom, there is text celebrating the 70-year anniversary of Mendez v. Westminster and providing the website 'www.mendezmuseum.org'.

Ways to Give to the Latinx Staff and Faculty Forum Gift Account

<https://www.chapman.edu/support-chapman/ways-to-give/areas-to-support.aspx>

Select “Diversity Initiatives” as your Area to Support.

Please use the memo section to specify particular funds for the Latino Staff & Faculty Forum.

Chapman University is deeply committed to enriching diversity and inclusion through on-going efforts to cultivate a welcoming campus climate for all members of the Chapman community.

Your donation to Diversity Initiatives will help support the efforts of the Chapman Diversity Project which focuses on research, best practices, and advocacy for underrepresented groups on campus. This also includes support for the Latino Staff & Faculty Forum, community partnerships focused on diversifying the campus community by creating pathways for local students to come to Chapman, and expanding learning opportunities for faculty, staff, and students.

Please use the memo section to specify particular funds for the Latino Staff & Faculty Forum.

For more information, please contact Joseph Slowensky at jslowens@chapman.edu.
