LGBTQIA+ Staff and Faculty Forum

- New Staff and Faculty Forum was created Fall 2017
- They are working on content for their website

Date: August 29, 2017
To: Full-Time Faculty, Part-Time Faculty and Staff
From: Joe Slowensky, Vice Provost for Institutional Effectiveness and Faculty Affairs
Re: Chapman LGBTQIA+ Staff and Faculty Forum

Chapman University and the Office of the Provost are pleased to support the formation of the Chapman LGBTQIA+ Staff and Faculty Forum. The goal of this group is to provide support for LGBTQIA+ student communities, mentoring, and community development opportunities to staff and faculty members who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, transgender, queer, questioning, intersex, asexual, and/or any other sexual or gender minority. All members of the Chapman community of faculty and staff are welcome in this group regardless of identity. The group seeks to build bridges between Chapman employees, community organizations, and the larger Chapman community.

- Partner with them on a brochure highlighting the staff and faculty forums to include in welcome material for new hires

UNCOLONIZED
FILM SCREENING AND TALK

Cross-cultural center
Argyros Forum 304
MARCH 28, 2018
6-8 pm

UNCOLONIZED is a short documentary film about a native family who decided never to enroll their two daughters into the public school system, choosing instead to homeschool them from birth. Chris is Potawatomi and Chasity is Navajo. Their daughters Nathaney and Mimicah, ages 11 and 7 at the time of filming, carry both of their parents' lineages in the their blood, but also in their way of being.

The film takes a critical look at the historical experiences of native children inside of the US public education system, and brings clarity to the decision of this family to keep their daughters out of the public school system, and therefore keep them UNCOLONIZED.
