John Fowles

Center for Creative Writing

Literary Forum

The John Fowles Center for Creative Writing promotes and advances the discipline of creative writing in all its aspects: fiction, poetry, drama, creative nonfiction and screenwriting. The Center offers students and non-students alike an opportunity to gain a greater appreciation for the "written word" and those who write it. Each year a distinguished group of national and international writers is invited to Chapman University, making access to those writers available not only to the Chapman community, but to the Orange County and, by extension, the Southern California community as well. Now into its fourteenth year, the John Fowles Center for Creative Writing has invited such international writers to Chapman as:

Nobel Laureate, Wole Soyinka, Salman Rushdie, Maxine Hong Kingston, Luisa Valenzuela, Lawrence Ferlinghetti, Alain Robbe-Grillet, Gioconda Belli, Alicia Partnoy, Steve Katz, Raúl Zurita, Elizabeth George, Elias Khoury, Charles Bernstein, Larry McCaffery, Alicia Kozameh, Fanny Howe, David Antin, Raymond Federman, Ronald Sukenick, Willis Barnstone and, of course, John Fowles among others.

Doy and Dee Henley Reading Room,
