JOHN FOWLES

Center for Creative Writing

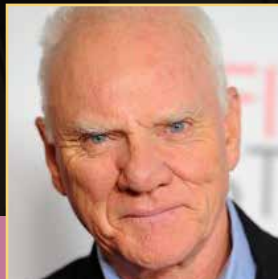

The John Fowles Center for Creative Writing promotes and advances the discipline of creative writing in all its aspects: fiction, poetry, drama, creative non-fiction and film. The Center offers students and non-students alike an opportunity to gain a greater appreciation for the “written word” and those who write it. Each year a distinguished group of national and international writers is invited to Chapman University, making access to those writers available not only to the Chapman community, but to the Orange County and, by extension, the Southern California community as well.

Celebrating its 19th year, The John Fowles Center for Creative Writing has invited such inter/national writers to Chapman as: Salman Rushdie, Luisa Valenzuela, Lawrence Ferlinghetti, Gioconda Belli, Maxine Hong Kingston, Steve Katz, John Ashbery, Isabel Allende, Claudio Magris, Charles Bernstein, Fanny Howe, David Antin, Giuseppe Conte, Willis Barnstone and Nobel Laureate, Wole Soyinka, just to name a few.

Look for the Fowles Center’s new online journal, MANTISSA, which includes writing from internationally known writers.
