

The Center for Global Trade & Development

2009-10 Lectures

All lectures are open to Chapman law students, faculty, alumni, student organizations and other friends of Chapman

October 30, 2009, 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Annual Nexus Journal Symposium: The 80th Anniversary of the Great Crash of 1929: Law, Markets, and the Role of the State, with keynote addresses by Tom Campbell, Presidential Fellow and Fletcher Jones Distinguished Visiting Professor of Law, Chapman University School of Law; and Timothy Canova, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Betty Hutton Williams Professor of International Economic Law, Chapman University School of Law.

Thursday, November 12, 2009, 5:30 p.m.

Panel discussion on the international rule-of-law reform entitled Examining Law in Difficult Places, featuring Theodore Parnall, Bette & Wylie Aitken Distinguished Visiting Professor of Law at the Chapman University School of Law; and Judge David O. Carter and Judge Stephen Larson, both of the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

Friday, May 7th, 2010, 6:15 p.m.

Dr. Edward Perkins, Ambassador to the UN and South Africa, will speak about his role as Ambassador as well as his experience with Nelson Mandela. Having arrived at the 20th anniversary of Mandela's release, Dr. Perkins will reflect on those turbulent times and commemorate the end of apartheid. Chapman University School of Law, Forum Hall West 237A/B.