

ENGAGING THE WORLD
LEADING the conversation on

Health Equity

FILM SCREENING & DISCUSSION

Queen Moorea Documentary Screening

Q&A with Producer Christine Fugate, Moorea Howson, & Dr. Art Blaser

Moderated by Dr. Meghan Cosier,
Thompson Policy Institute on Disability

Monday, November 6, 2023 | 2:30p.m.

Location: Folino Theater, Dodge College

Moorea Howson, a spirited Asian-American homecoming queen, struggles to fulfill her dreams in a world that insists on labeling her. Born with Williams Syndrome, a rare and incurable genetic condition, Moorea finds hope through her family, friends and community.

For more information on the Engaging the World series, scan the QR code or visit the link below

<https://www.chapman.edu/wilkinson/about/events/etw-health-equity.aspx>

Co-sponsors: Dodge College of Film and Media Arts
& Thompson Policy Institute on Disability

 CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY Thompson Policy
Institute on Disability

 CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY | Wilkinson College of
Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences | Crean College of Health and Behavioral Sciences