

ENGAGING THE WORLD
LEADING the conversation on Ethnic Studies

LECTURE SERIES

Beyond their Borders: Mariachi Masterclass with Los Camperos musician Sergio "Checo" Alonso

Wednesday, November 30, 2022
5:30 p.m.

Location:
Salmon Recital Hall (within Oliphant Hall)

Grammy award-winning Los Camperos mariachi musician Sergio "Checo" Alonso, is a committed advocate for the preservation and dissemination of traditional Mexican music in the U.S. Join Sergio as he shares his story as a Mexican-American mariachi musician and conducts a masterclass for Chapman University's Mariachi Panteras.

Co-sponsor: College of Performing Arts

For more information on the Engaging the World series, scan the QR code or visit the link below

<https://www.chapman.edu/wilkinson/about/events/etw-ethnicstudies.aspx>