

ENGAGING THE WORLD

LEADING

the conversation on
Ethnic Studies

ART & LECTURE SERIES

Diana Khoi Nguyen Poetry Talk and Reading

September 13, 2022
2:30 p.m. (Poetry Talk)
7:00 p.m. (Poetry Reading)

Argyros Forum, 209A

Diana Khoi Nguyen is the author of the award-winning Ghost Of, her debut poetry collection.

Creative Sovereignty: A Conversation with artist Gerald Clarke

September 20, 2022 at 11:30 a.m.

Argyros Forum, 209A

Gerald Clarke's work can be seen in numerous exhibitions and museum collections. He recently received a Harpo Foundation Native American Fellowship to the Vermont Studio Center.

Reclaiming Our Voice: The Ethnic Studies Movement in Santa Ana Unified School District

Oct. 4, 2022 at 1:00 p.m.

Argyros Forum, 201

Zoom Link: <https://chapman.zoom.us/j/99758818601>
(Translation in Spanish and Vietnamese available on Zoom)

Santa Ana Unified School District personnel discuss their views on Ethnic Studies in education.

Cultural Appreciation, Appropriation, or Assimilation? The Sikh Experience in America

October 11, 2022 at 7:00 p.m. (Reception to follow)

Wallace All Faiths Chapel, Fish Interfaith Center

A conversation to challenge the notion of a single narrative, exploring the nuances of the multifaceted Sikh community and the role of cultural humility in story-telling.

They Called Us Enemy* Book Conversation

October 17, 2022 at 6:00 p.m.

Orange Public Library & History Center, Community Room,
407 E. Chapman Ave, Orange

Free and open to the public (Library has books available for check out!)

Discussion of the graphic memoir They Called Us Enemy by author, actor, and activist George Takei.

The Kindness of Color

October 18, 2022 at 1:00 p.m.

Argyros Forum, 209A

Janice Munemitsu and Sandy Mendez Duncan tell the story of two families behind Mendez v. Westminster, the 1947 desegregation of California public schools.

An Evening with George Takei: Actor, Author, and Activist

November 2, 2022 at 7:30 p.m.

Musco Center for the Arts (Tickets required)

George Takei is a prominent voice for immigrant and LGBTQIA+ rights, particularly in his recollections of his childhood spent behind the barbed-wire enclosures of Japanese-American internment camps during WWII.

A Night of Remembrance: Honoring America's Latino Veterans

November 11, 2022 at 6:30 p.m.

Argyros Forum, 209ABC

An event to honor Latino veterans and to bring to light their contributions in serving in the U.S. military.

A Talk with Lalo Alcaraz: Author, Artist, Cartoonist, Pocho

December 6, 2022 at 5:30 p.m.

Beckman Hall, 404

Lalo Alcaraz is an award-winning nationally-syndicated editorial cartoonist and the creator of the syndicated daily comic strip "La Cucaracha," published nationwide since 2002.

<https://www.chapman.edu/wilkinson/about/events/etw-ethnicstudies.aspx>