

Engaging the World

LEADING

the conversation on

Gender & Sexuality

LECTURE & FILM SERIES

Roxane with One "N" Featuring Roxane Gay

Wednesday, September 25, 2024 | 7:00pm

Musco Center for the Arts

Roxane Gay is an author who garners international acclaim for her reflective, no-holds-barred exploration of feminism and social criticism.

Bensussen Guest Lecture Series in Art with Photographer Catherine Opie

Wednesday, October 2, 2024 | 7:00pm

Sandhu Conference Center

Catherine Opie is a fine art photographer who creates pieces relating to sexual identity that examine the ideals and norms surrounding the culturally constructed American dream and American identity.

The Feminist on Cellblock Y – Film Screening and Q&A

Thursday, October 3, 2024 | 7:15pm

Digital Media Arts Center 123

The subject of this film, Richie Reseda, is an inmate at a prison in California who studies and organizes around feminism and toxic masculinity with his fellow inmates.

COVER-UP: The Censorship of Gender and Sexuality in Art – A Discussion with Professor Micol Hebron

Wednesday, October 9, 2024 | 11:30am

Argyros Forum – Room 201

A lecture, given by art professor Micol Hebron on the ways that art about gender and sexuality is censored in person and online.

Ballroom Workshop

Thursday, October 17, 2024 | 7:00pm

Argyros Forum – Room 119

House of AWT will give a history of ball culture, with a tutorial on voguing, duck walking, and drops – all classic moves done on the catwalk during a ball.

Promoting LGBTQ+ Health Equity: Sex-Positive Strategies with Dr. Ronald Rivera

Tuesday, October 22, 2024 | 10:00am

Argyros Forum – Room 201

Dr. Ronald Rivera, UC Irvine Medical Center Physician & Director of DEI in Emergency Medicine, will discuss LGBTQ+ health equity and sex positive approaches in addressing disparities.

Gender, Race, and Masculinity: A Discussion

Wednesday, November 6, 2024 | 4:00pm

Argyros Forum – Room 209 AB

Join Takeo Rivera, Playwright and Assistant Professor of English at Boston University, and other panelists for a discussion about the intersectionality of gender, race, and masculinity.

Global Feminisms Panel

Tuesday, November 12, 2024 | 11:30am

Argyros Forum – Room 209 AB

Scholar panel exploring historically and culturally specific forms of feminist praxis that people have employed to engage, confront, reconfigure, and enact social and political change.

The Healer Stones of Kapaemahu – Film Screening and Q&A

Monday, November 18, 2024 | 7:15pm

Digital Media Arts Center 123

Kapaemahu: A film celebrating Waikiki's Mahu legends and healing traditions, directed by Hinaleimoana Wong-Kalu. Features archival footage, animation, and a Q&A.

Tabula Poetica: The Queer Subject: Voice, Identity, and Memory in Poetry and Prose with Charles Jensen

Tuesday, November 19, 2024 | 1:00pm

Argyros Forum – Room 209 C

Charles Jensen wrote Splice of Life: A Memoir in 13 Film Genres, published in May 2024. His most recent collection of poetry is Instructions between Takeoff and Landing.

Mama Has a Mustache – Film Screening and Q&A

Thursday, December 5, 2024 | 7:00pm

Folino Theater

A short animated documentary about identity and family outside of the traditional gender binary, as seen through children's eyes.

Learn more about this year's ETW events here!

