

FALL 2024

Research Workshop Series

As Wilkinson College's research culture matures, it is important to create opportunities for shared conversation and information exchange. Come meet fellow grant seekers and recipients and learn more about various topics connected to sponsored research.

WILKINSON FUNDING FORMS

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 12-1:30PM, ROOSEVELT HALL 121

Join our interactive workshop with Sarah Gordon, Director of Administrative Operations, to master the use of Wilkinson's internal funding forms! This session will guide you through the process, ensuring you can confidently navigate and utilize these essential forms to support your subvention, event funding, faculty conference travel, and late-breaking opportunity needs. Bring your lunch; we'll provide drinks, chips, and dessert.

HOW TO GIVE A BOOK TALK

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 12-1:30 PM, ARGYROS FORUM 209A

Discover the art of engaging audiences in our workshop on delivering captivating book talks. This session will equip you with the skills to effectively communicate the essence of a book, share your insights, and spark interest. This workshop will enhance your presentation abilities and leave your audience eager to read more. Our presenters, Lia Halloran (Art), Mateo Jarquín (History) and Anna Leahy (Creative Writing), will share their experiences of setting up book talks, publicizing their books, and what they've learned along the way. Bring your lunch; we'll provide drinks, chips, and dessert.

GRANT WRITING 101

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2-4 PM, ARGYROS FORUM 209C

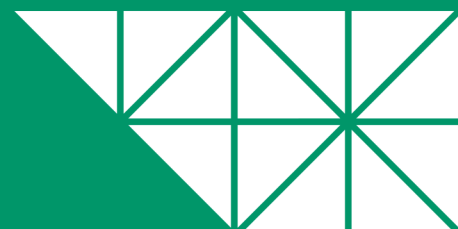

Step into the world of grant writing with our introductory workshop. Gain a comprehensive overview of the grant application process, including crucial internal deadlines. Learn to identify potential funding sources and craft clear, concise project narratives. We'll guide you through budget preparation and justification while highlighting common pitfalls and how to avoid them. Plus, gain valuable insights into the review process.

CELEBRATING INTERNAL GRANT SUCCESS

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 12-1:30 PM, ARGYROS FORUM 209B

In our last session of the semester, we will celebrate Wilkinson College faculty internal grant recipients and hear details about their projects from faculty PIs/ project directors and their student researchers. We invite the entire Wilkinson community to engage with our colleagues. RSVP to Allison DeVries, as lunch will be provided.

SPRING 2025 Research Workshop Series

As Wilkinson College's research culture matures, it is important to create opportunities for shared conversation and information exchange. Come meet fellow grant seekers and recipients and learn more about various topics connected to sponsored research.

INTERNAL GRANT FUNDING

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 12-1:30 PM, ROOSEVELT HALL 121

In this workshop with Allison DeVries, Manager of Research Development and Administration, we will discuss two Internal Grant Funding opportunities: Wilkinson College's Scholarly/ Creative Activity Faculty Grant (due March 14, 2025) and the Office of Research's Faculty Grant for Research, Scholarship and Creative Activities (deadline TBD). We will review the application requirements for both programs and discuss elements of a great proposal. Current grant recipients will be in attendance to discuss their applications and projects. Bring your lunch; we'll provide drinks, chips, and dessert.

OPEN ACCESS & GOOGLE SCHOLAR: BOOSTING YOUR CITATION IMPACT

TUESDAY, MARCH 11, 12-1:30 PM, TBD

Explore the evolving landscape of academic publishing with Scholarly Communications librarian, Kristin Laughtin-Dunker. We'll dive into the advantages of open-access platforms and the impact of digital commons on scholarly communication. Understand how Google Scholar can enhance your research visibility and learn strategies to track and optimize your digital footprint. Engage in critical discussions on the common misperceptions of Open Access and how these tools shape the future of research dissemination.

AI IN GRANT WRITING: BUILDING RELEVANT WORKS

TUESDAY, APRIL 8, 12-1:30 PM, TBD

Join our workshop with Doug Dechow and Taylor Greene focusing on the integration of AI in grant writing. Discover how AI tools can streamline the creation of relevant works and bibliographies, enhancing the efficiency and accuracy of your grant proposals. Learn to leverage AI for identifying pertinent literature, automating citation formatting, and maintaining up-to-date reference lists. This workshop will provide you with practical knowledge on harnessing AI technology to elevate your grant writing process.

CELEBRATING EXTERNAL GRANT SUCCESS
