

OCT 3, 5-7PM IN AF 209C

BRINGING DOWN THE BERLIN WALL THROUGH THE ARTS

screening, lecture, & discussion featuring

LIZ CURTIS (DEPARTMENT OF DANCE)

Liz Curtis is a dancer and choreographer whose work has been presented on stage and television and in screendance and site-specific works. She is an adjunct faculty member of the dance departments at Chapman University and California State University, Long Beach.

DR. MARC VOSS (CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENTS OF SOCIOLOGY AND WORLD LANGUAGES & CULTURES)

Dr. Marc T. Voss is a Lecturer for Germanic Languages and Sociology at Chapman University. He is also the founder and executive director of the Regimes Museum and has written several books and articles on totalitarianism and dictatorships.

Primary Sponsors: Chapman University Provost Office, Wilkinson College of the Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences, the Department of Peace Studies, Escalette Permanent Collection of Art, Leatherby Libraries, the Guggenheim Gallery, and LatinX & Latin-American Studies

