Nancy Baker Cahill

Nancy Baker Cahill is a multi-disciplinary artist and founder of 4th Wall, a free Augmented Reality (AR) app which allows users to place art anywhere in the world. She received her B.A. from Williams College. From 2010-2012 she initiated and led a collaborative art project at Homeboy Industries called "Exit Wounds." Works from this project were exhibited throughout Los Angeles as part of the Craft and Folk Art Museum (CAFAM)'s "Folk Art Everywhere" program. In 2015 she designed and led a collage workshop with homeless individuals under the aegis of a CAFAM grant.

Solo exhibition highlights include the Pasadena Museum of California Art, Ochi Projects, her Virtual Reality (VR) public art project on the IF (Innovation Foundation) sponsored Sunset Digital Billboards, and an upcoming interactive VR/AR event at LACE (Los Angeles Contemporary Exhibitions) in April 2018. She served for years as a member of the Hollywood Public Art Advisory Board and a member of the Pasadena Art Alliance.
