

LIMITED PURPOSE FLEXIBLE SPENDING ACCOUNT

When you enroll in a Limited Purpose flexible spending account (FSA) from Cigna and a Cigna Choice Fund® Health Savings Account (HSA), you have two tax-advantaged ways to pay for your health expenses.

Use your Limited Purpose FSA to:

- › Reimburse yourself for dental and vision related expenses.
- › Save or invest your money in your HSA and use your Limited Purpose FSA to reimburse yourself for health-related expenses.*

Once you reach your plan deductible, you can:

- › Use your FSA to pay for any health-related expenses – medical, dental or vision – not covered by your plan.

Eligible dental and vision expenses include:

- › Dentist visits
- › Mouth guards
- › Prescription toothpaste and rinses
- › Vision exams
- › Prescription eye drops
- › Eyeglasses or contacts and supplies

*You cannot use both accounts for the same expense.

We make getting reimbursed fast and easy:

- › Reimbursement requests can be made online by mail, or by fax.
- › Choose direct deposit and have reimbursements deposited directly to your bank account.
- › Sign up to have withdrawal and deposit notifications sent to your email. Go to myCigna.com > Profile>Email and Document Delivery Preferences > Claims and Account Notifications.

We're here to help – 24/7/365.
