SECOND ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM

ARE WE AT WAR?
GLOBAL CONFLICT & INSECURITY POST-9/11

APRIL 6-7, 2006

Presented by
CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
and
CENTER FOR GLOBAL TRADE & DEVELOPMENT AT CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY,
The Center for Global Education and the Peace Studies Program,
WILKINSON COLLEGE OF ARTS AND LETTERS,
CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY
Thursday, April 6, 2006
8:30 Registration and continental breakfast
9:00 Welcome remarks by Dean Parham Williams
9:35 Opening Session: September 11th for Families of the Disappeared
• Dr. Kevin T. Jones, Assistant Professor, Communications Studies, Chapman University
10:00 Panel One: Defining “War” in the 21st Century: Focus on Terrorism
• Dr. Joseph Runzo, Professor of Philosophy and Religious Studies, Chapman University
• Dr. Asa Kasher, Laura Schwarcz-Kipp Professor of Professional Ethics and Philosophy of Practice, Tel Aviv University
• Dr. Philip Towle, Reader in International Studies, University of Cambridge
Moderated by Timothy A. Cameron, Professor of Law and Director of the Center for Global Trade and Development, Chapman University School of Law
12:00 Lunchroom Keynote
Introduction by Dr. Donald S. Will, Delp-Willkinson Professor of Peace Studies and Political Science, Chapman University
Civilization, War, and Peace, presented by Dr. Majid Tehranian, Director of the Toda Institute for Global Peace and Policy Research, and Adjunct Professor of International Relations, Soka University of America
2:00 Panel Two: Security and Civil Liberties
• Professor Mohammad Nouraie, Professor of Law Emeritus, the University of California at Los Angeles School of Law
• Dr. John C. Eastman, Professor of Law, Chapman University School of Law and Director, The Claremont Institute Center for Constitutional Jurisprudence
• Professor Elizabeth Rapaport, Dickson Professor of Law, the University of New Mexico School of Law
Moderated by M. Katherine B. Darmer, Professor of Law, Chapman University School of Law
4:00 Panel Three: Historical Perspectives on War and Security
• Dr. Michael S. Neiberg, Professor of History, Co-Director of the Center for the Study of War and Society, University of Southern Mississippi
• Dr. John Lawrence Hill, Professor of Law, Indiana University School of Law, Indianapolis
• The Honorable James P. Gray, Judge, Superior Court of Orange County, California
Moderated by Donald J. Kochan, Assistant Professor of Law, Chapman University School of Law
6:30 Keynote Address and Banquet
Introductory Remarks: President James L. Doti, President and Donald Bren Distinguished Professor of Business and Economics, Chapman University.
The Importance of the European Union for Peace and Security presented by Ambassador Rockwell A. Schubert, former United States Representative to the European Union
All conference sessions will take place on campus at Chapman University School of Law, Kennedy Hall, Room 237. Luncheons and the banquet will be in Beckman Hall, Room 404.
For directions, please see http://www.chapman.edu/map/

The Center for Global Trade & Development at Chapman University is dedicated to interdisciplinary research and programs on a wide range of issues related to globalization and human development.

It is housed at the Chapman University School of Law, which is located in Southern California, in the heart of an increasingly diverse Orange County near the Ports of Long Beach and Los Angeles, together the largest seaport in the United States and the nation’s largest gateway for trade with Asia, the Pacific Rim and Latin America. For more information on The Center for Global Trade & Development: http://www.chapman.edu/law/programs/clinical/globalTrade.asp

Friday, April 7, 2006
8:00 Registration and continental breakfast
8:30 Panel Four: Global Trade & Security
• Dr. Eric J. Lobinger, J.D. candidate, Faculty of Law, Kyushu University, Fukuoka City, Japan
• Professor Marjorie Florestal, Assistant Professor of Law, University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law
• Dr. Ismael Hosein-Zaedeh, Professor of Economics, Drake University
Moderated by Dr. Henry N. Butler, James R. Farley Professor of Economics, Chapman University
10:15 Panel Five: International Law and Global Strategy
• Mohammed Watan, Brezfelder Constitutional Law Fellow and I.S.D. candidate, Columbia University School of Law
• Di Dominika Savic, Senior International Law and Policy Analyst, Institute for Strategic Studies, Ljubljana, Slovenia
• Dr. Dennis J.D. Sandule, Professor of Conflict Resolution and International Relations, Institute for Conflict Analysis and Resolution, George Mason University
Moderated by Dr. Donald S. Will, Delp-Willkinson Professor of Peace Studies and Political Science, Chapman University
12:00 Lunchroom Keynote
Introduction by Robert E. Currie, Esq., Chair, Dean’s Council, Chapman University School of Law
The Middle East: Culture, Terrorism and Democracy presented by Joseph P. Hoar, General, U.S. Marines (Retired), and former Commander in Chief, U.S. Central Command
1:45 Panel Six: Separation of Powers & Parliamentary Authority
• Professor Joseph W. Dellapenna, Professor of Law, Villanova University School of Law
• Dr. Seth Weinberger, Assistant Professor of Politics and Government, University of Puget Sound
• Professor Michael D. Ramsey, Professor of Law, University of San Diego School of Law
Moderated by Celestine Richards McCorville, Professor of Law, Chapman University School of Law
3:30 Panel Seven: Human Rights and Humanitarian Intervention
• Dr. Irene Gedzierski, Professor of Political Science, Boston University
• Fabiola Letteri del Solar, human rights attorney and President, Memoria y Justicia, Santiago, Chile
• Dr. Joseph Morrison Scally, Assistant Professor of History, College of Mount Saint Vincent, U.S. Army Reserve, Operation Iraqi Freedom Veteran
Moderated by Dr. John A. Hall, Assistant Professor of Law, Chapman University School of Law
5:00 Closing Reception

PAYMENTS OPTIONS
Check Enclosed (please make payable to Chapman University)
Please charge my
[ ] VISA [ ] MasterCard [ ] Discover

Name on card:
Card Number:
Expiration Date:
Authorized signature: Date:

You may register by mail, fax or phone:
Chapman University School of Law, CGTD
ATTN: Ms. Christine Lewis
The Center of Global Trade & Development
Chapman University School of Law
370 N. Glassell Ave.
Orange, CA 92866
(714) 628-2605
(714) 628-2564 FAX
clewis@chapman.edu

Name:
Company:
Telephone:
E-Mail:

Full conference (includes banquet, luncheons and reception) $ 200.00
Two conference days, includes luncheons (no banquet) $ 150.00
One full conference day with luncheon (no banquet) $ 80.00

PAYMENT OPTIONS

Please indicate the panel you wish to attend:

Panel One: Defining “War” in the 21st Century: Focus on Terrorism

Panel Two: Security and Civil Liberties

Panel Three: Historical Perspectives on War and Security

Panel Four: Global Trade & Security

Panel Five: International Law and Global Strategy

Panel Six: Separation of Powers & Parliamentary Authority

Panel Seven: Human Rights and Humanitarian Intervention

Panel Three: Historical Perspectives on War and Security

Luncheon Keynote: Introduction by Robert E. Currie, Esq., Chair, Dean’s Council

The Middle East: Culture, Terrorism and Democracy presented by Joseph P. Hoar

Continuing Education Credit: Chapman University is a California approved mandatory continuing legal education (MCLE) provider. This program qualifies for California MCLE credit. A Uniform Certificate of Attendance will be available at the conference for attendees. Accreditation will also be requested for attendees from other states with MCLE requirements for lawyers. Each state has its own rules and regulations, including definitions of CLE.

EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION DISCOUNT OF 10% for registration by March 15, 2006.

Luncheons only, $30.00 per person
Luncheons only, $75.00 per person

If you have a vegetarian preference please check here (all meals selected):

You may register by mail, fax or phone:
Chapman University School of Law, CGTD
ATTN: Ms. Christine Lewis
The Center of Global Trade & Development
Chapman University School of Law
370 N. Glassell Ave.
Orange, CA 92866
(714) 628-2605
(714) 628-2564 FAX
clewis@chapman.edu

Chapman University faculty and students (including law faculty and students) may attend conference workshops at no cost. Special “Chapman” rate for luncheons is $20 per person and the “Chapman” rate for the banquet is $45 per person. Student/faculty ID required for the special rate.

Conference Registration

To register, complete this form and return it with the registration fee to the address below by March 30, 2006.

PAYMENT OPTIONS

Check Enclosed (please make payable to Chapman University)
Please charge my
[ ] VISA [ ] MasterCard [ ] Discover

Name on card:
Card Number:
Expiration Date:
Authorized signature: Date:

You may register by mail, fax or phone:
Chapman University School of Law, CGTD
ATTN: Ms. Christine Lewis
The Center of Global Trade & Development
Chapman University School of Law
370 N. Glassell Ave.
Orange, CA 92866
(714) 628-2605
(714) 628-2564 FAX
clewis@chapman.edu

Chapman University faculty and students (including law faculty and students) may attend conference workshops at no cost. Special “Chapman” rate for luncheons is $15 per person and the “Chapman” rate for the banquet is $45 per person. Student/faculty ID required for the special rate.

Continuing Education Credit: Chapman University is a California approved mandatory continuing legal education (MCLE) provider. This program qualifies for California MCLE credit. A Uniform Certificate of Attendance will be available at the conference for attendees. Accreditation will also be requested for attendees from other states with MCLE requirements for lawyers. Each state has its own rules and regulations, including definitions of CLE.