* The Education Law Colloquia Series is directed by Betsy Levin, the 2007 Fletcher Jones Distinguished Visiting Professor of Law at the Chapman University School of Law. Dean Levin is an expert in Education Law and Constitutional Law, and has authored numerous books, including a leading casebook on Education Law.

Dean Levin has had an extraordinarily distinguished career. She is a graduate of Bryn Mawr College and received her law degree from Yale University Law School, where she was a member of the Yale Law Journal. Thereafter, she clerked for the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit and then served for a year as Special Assistant to Justice Arthur Goldberg in his capacity as Ambassador to the United Nations. She was a Professor of Law at Duke University School of Law from 1973 to 1981, and she was General Counsel to the U.S. Department of Education from 1980 to 1981. Dean Levin served with distinction as Dean of the University of Colorado School of Law from 1981 to 1987, and was the Executive Director of the Association of American Law Schools from 1987 to 1992. Dean Levin has been a Visiting Professor at New York University, the University of Southern California, the University of North Carolina, Georgetown University and Nova Southeastern University.
