"Rotunda, a former ‘attorney for the Senate Watergate Committee,’ is the ‘leading ethics authority.’”
John Dean, Watergate: Lessons for Today, nearly 40 Years Later, OHIO LAWYER, July/August 2011, 10, 14

"Professor Rotunda's work should be on every lawyer's desk. The Deskbook is bread and butter and meat and potatoes stuff.” Robert P. Cummins, Former Chair, Illinois Judicial Inquiry Board; former Member, ABA Standing Committee on Professionalism, Cummins & Cronin Chicago, IL

Rotunda's book is "...an invaluable resource for both lawyers and judges." Bill Pryor, Former Attorney General, State of Alabama

"Professor Rotunda has distilled his over 25 years" experience in the field of legal ethics into a volume designed to help busy lawyers stay out of trouble." Thomas D. Morgan, Oppenheim Professor of Law, Emeritus, The George Washington University Law School, Washington, DC

"My personal favorite ... a pretty complete treatment of almost every ethics issue you will ever see ...." Lucian Pera, Adams& Reese, LLP, former President of the Association of Professional Responsibility Lawyers (APRL) Leadership of the Tennessee Bar Association ethics committee from 1995 through 2009, Memphis, TN

"Even lawyers with extensive experience in legal ethics issues will find this book very helpful." Samuel Dash, Late Professor of Law, Georgetown University Law Center, Former Chief Counsel, Senate Watergate Committee, Washington, DC

"No lawyer planning to practice in the 21st century can afford to ignore Rotunda's scholarly and complete review of the obligations assumed by those of us given the privilege to practice law." Phillip Carroll, Late Of Counsel, Rose Law Firm Little Rock, AR

"Rotunda, ‘one of the nation's leading authorities on Legal Ethics,’ has given us a ‘current, comprehensive publication of enormous practical value to the busy lawyer.’ This ‘Deskbook offers practical guidance for busy lawyers through the minefields in legal ethics.” William Reece Smith, Jr. Former President, ABA, Late Partner, Carlton, Fields, Ward, Emmanuel, Smith & Cutler, P.A. Tampa, FL

"This book is indispensable." The Reverend Robert F. Drinan, S.J. Late Professor of Law, Faculty Advisor to the Georgetown Journal of Legal Ethics, Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, DC

"It is a colossal contribution to the study of professional responsibility." Raymond R. Trombadore, Late Chair, ABA Standing Committee on Professional Discipline. Raymond R & David W. Trombadore. PC Somerville, NJ