Good News!
Chapman’s competition teams were busy this weekend, fielding teams in three different competitions. At the Thomas Tang Moot Court Competition National Finals, we had two teams competing. Jonathan Shin (2L) and Lindsay Niles (2L) advanced to the semifinal round, while Arthur Andonyants (3L) and Nilo Karbassi (3L) were recognized for writing the second best brief in the country. Chapman hosted a regional round of the National Moot Court Competition. Our team of Lisa Poladian (3L) and Ben Bertch (3L) reached the quarterfinal round, and their brief tied for second best in the region. We entered two teams in the ABA Labor Law Trial Competition, Los Angeles regional: Dalia Wahab (3L), Erica Bashaw (3L), Vic Bachand (2L), and Ren Henry (2L), and Elise Levy (2L), Shane Melzer (3L), Andrew Cummings (3L), and Nikki Micheil (3L). The team of Levy, Melzer, Micheil, and Cummings advanced to the semifinal round. Please congratulate all these students when you see them.

Want Filtered Water?
A filtered water dispenser has been installed on the left side of the sink in the student lounge. Enjoy!

Give Blood, Save A Life!
Did you know that 1 pint of blood can save up to 3 lives? Make your appointment online at www.redcrossblood.org. Use sponsor code: CUABA. The American Red Cross will be at the law school on Wednesday, November 12 from 10:00 a.m. – 4:15 p.m. in Room 237A.

Do You Have Questions But Don’t Know Who To Contact?
We have created a new page on the law school website that will direct you to the person within the law school who can provide you with a response. Here’s the link: http://www.chapman.edu/law/cant-find-what-youre-looking-for/index.aspx. Students are encouraged to bookmark this page for future reference. Still can’t find what you are looking for? Send an email to Juneau@chapman.edu.

New Room For Nursing Moms
To assist our students who give birth while in law school, we now have a New Moms’ Room. The room is located in Room 167 on the first floor next to the student game room. Entrance is by key card access only. Those wishing to use the room should see Miguel Viveros in the Student Services Suite (across the hall from the LRW/Externship Suite) to have their student ID coded for access to the room. The room has a refrigerator available for storage.

New Resource for Law Students – Learn about Lawcountability
The CSO has a brand new resource available to jump start your job search. Lawcountability, J.D. is a way for law students to find more dynamic ways to stand out in the job search process. To balance your efforts at networking, following up on career leads, strategically managing social media, and generally improving your online profile. Lawcountability, J.D. will help you keep on task towards your post-graduate job. The best part? This program allows you to see results even if it is used for just ten minutes per week!

1Ls – Lawcountability has a First-Year Primer Series tailored specifically to helping you navigate the legal market as you job search.

2Ls – You can earn one elective credit toward your mandatory Professional Development Graduation Requirement by watching these air 10-minute videos from the program:
- The Key to Relationship Building (available in archives)
- Getting Out of the Classroom to Get into the Profession (available in archives)
- Overcoming Social Discomfort (available in archives)
- Invading in Informational Interviews (available 1/26/15)
- The Basics of Bar Association Participation (available 2/3/15)
- The Secret to Professional Development (available 5/18/15)

* The CSO receives a weekly report from Lawcountability, J.D. indicating whether students watched the videos

On Wednesday, November 12 at 12:00 p.m. in Room 379, the CSO will be giving a brief demonstration on how to effectively use this resource. Pizza will be provided to attendees.

Give Blood, Save A Life!
Did you know that 1 pint of blood can save up to 3 lives? Make your appointment online at www.redcrossblood.org. Use sponsor code: CUABA. The American Red Cross will be at the law school on Wednesday, November 12 from 10:00 a.m. - 4:15 p.m. in Room 237A.

A Deliberative Dialogue on the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict
Chapman University Civic Engagement Initiatives will host a deliberative dialogue forum on the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict, which will be modeled after formats used across the country to engage ordinary citizens in public discussion about the many ways in which public problems can be addressed. While not yet confirmed, the framing question for this event may be similar to: “How can we respond effectively and ethically to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict?” If you are interested in helping to shape this event, please contact Professor Cianciarulo at cianciar@chapman.edu. The event will be held November 12 at 7:00 p.m. in Argyros Forum.

Chapman Law Review Tax Symposium Issue Release
Volume 18, Issue 1 of the Chapman Law Review is here! Stop by our table on Wednesday, November 12 from 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. in the lobby to check out the newest issue on the Spring 2014 Tax Symposium, “Business Tax Reform: Emerging Issues in the Taxation of U.S. Entities,” featuring our keynote address and several cutting edge articles on the taxation of offshore profits, corporate tax reform, and state and local tax issues. The best part: we will be distributing FREE TREATS AND GOODIES to those who stop by!

And keep an eye out for our forthcoming issue on Comprehensive Immigration Reform in early 2015 and The Intellectual Property Troll Symposium on Friday, January 30, 2015!!

Chapman Dialogue Series: Melanie Wilson
This Event is sold out if you would like to be placed on the waitlist, please register at the link below. You will be notified via email if a ticket becomes available for your use.

The Moral Impediment to Justice: How the Multiple Occupational Identities Embedded in the Role of Prosecutor Impede Prosecutors from Complying with their Ethical Obligation to “Do Justice”
Melanie Wilson is a professor and Associate Dean for Academic Affairs at the University of Kansas School of Law. She is a former federal prosecutor and a criminal procedure scholar who seeks to reconcile the desire of authorities in the criminal justice system to act ethically, while sometimes facing the competing need for guilty defendants to be convicted swiftly.

Court of Appeal Justices Hearing Matters In Our Courtroom

On Monday, November 17, a three judge panel from the California Court of Appeal, Fourth District, Division Three, will be here at Chapman and will host oral argument on several criminal law matters currently before the court. The proceedings will take place in the Appellate Courtroom on the second floor. The panel will be comprised of Presiding Justice Kathleen O’Leary, Justice Richard Fybel, and Justice Richard Aronson, all of whom are adjunct professors here at the law school. The proceedings will begin promptly at 2:00 p.m. A break will be taken at approximately 2:30 p.m. so those who must leave for class or wish to enter after their 1:15 p.m. class is over can do so without disrupting the proceedings.

Students are strongly encouraged to make every effort to enter and exit only during breaks out of respect for the court and to minimize disruptions. Students will be required to pass through a metal detector to gain admittance to the courtroom. No backpacks or large purses will be allowed; leave them in your locker or you will be required to check them with court security. A small purse will be permitted but will be searched. This will slow down admittance to the courtroom and potentially delay the proceedings so please only bring pen and paper into the courtroom.

This is a wonderful honor for the law school and a great opportunity for our students so please observe proper courtroom decorum: no gum chewing, talking, eating, cell phone use (this includes texting, email, etc.), or computer use. Please turn off your phone before entering. Photographing and audiotaping is prohibited. Also, please dress appropriately for court. No shorts, sweats, tank tops, flip flops, or hats. Business casual or business attire is expected. Students who need to leave prior to the break can still view the proceedings from the overflow room in 237A. Students who are not dressed for court also will be directed to this room.

Tuesday, November 18

Land Use Society General Meeting

The Land Use Society will be having their general meeting on Tuesday, November 18th in Room 142 at 12:00 p.m. Come hang out as we will discuss and select a theme of emphasis for the upcoming semester. What prominent property rights issues would you like to focus on? Additionally, we are going to pick the destination for our final hike of the semester. Stop by and submit your suggestions. Lunch will be provided.

Thursday, November 20

Christian Law Student Society

The Christian Law Student Society (CLSS) will be having their last general meeting for the semester on Thursday, November 20th in Room 369 at 12:00pm. CLSS aims to provide support to law students at Chapman via fellowship and prayer. Lunch will be provided.

Contact chapmanchristiansociety@gmail.com if you have any questions.

In honor of Veterans Day, the Chapman University Dale E. Fowler School of Law recognizes and thanks those in our community who have served in the honorable and heroic cause of defending freedom and justice. Thank you for the sacrifices that you and your families have made while defending freedom around the world.
