A Note About the WRIT

There have been some minor formatting changes to the WRIT. We have moved the calendar section for events occurring this week to the top of the WRIT from its previous location after the general announcements section. We have also added a second calendar for events coming next week. We hope that you will find these additions to the WRIT helpful as you plan and schedule your time.

Good News

Over the weekend, two teams from Chapman, Arthur Arutyunyants (3L) and Nilofar Karbassi (3L), and Lindsay Niles (2L) and Jonathan Shin (2L), competed in the Thomas Tang Moot Court Competition in New Orleans. After two preliminary rounds, both Chapman Teams were in the semifinals, unfortunately competing against each other. Nilo and Arthur won both their semifinal and final rounds and will be advancing to the final competition. Jonathan and Lindsay won the Best Brief award. Please congratulate these students when you see them.

Many thanks to Professor Julie Marzouk who helped prepare both teams last week for the competition.

ATTENTION 1Ls: Mandatory One-on-One CSO Meetings Begin on Monday, 10/20

One-on-One CSO Counseling: You must meet with a CSO counselor once each semester as part of your Professional Development Graduation Requirement. Please log in to Symplicity and sign up for your fall appointment ASAP to get the time that works best for you: Sign up for your appointment. Counseling appointments begin the week of October 20th.

When you meet with your counselor, you will need to submit your (1) Essential To-Do List and (2) Resume & Cover Letter, which we will explain during our mandatory event on Friday, 10/17. So, please sign up for a meeting time that will allow you to timely submit these items. (It varies for each student, but the Essential To-Do List may take approximately 20-30 minutes to complete and the resume and cover letter assignment will take approximately one hour to complete.)

Appointments will be honored on a first-come, first-served basis. You must sign up for an appointment at least 24 hours in advance of the appointment. Should you need to cancel, you will need to do so at least 48 hours in advance of the appointment and reschedule another appointment on Symplicity.

Red Mass Honoring Professor Mainero

Professor Mario Mainero has been selected as the Orange County St. Thomas More Society Attorney of the Year. This honor will be conferred on him on October 6 at the Holy Family Cathedral, down the street from Chapman University, at 566 South Glassell Street, in Orange, at the annual Red Mass, which begins at 6:00 p.m. The Red Mass is open to everyone. There will be a served dinner afterward. No RSVP is necessary. The Red Mass is celebrated annually by the Catholic Church for judges, attorneys, law professors, and law students. In the United States, the Red Mass is traditionally held on the Sunday before the First Monday in October (the opening of the new United States Supreme Court term).

Tuesday, October 7

Solo Practice Incubator Meeting

Interested in starting your own solo practice law firm? Come to our Solo Practice Incubator meeting, Tuesday, October 7 at 12:00 p.m. in Room 414, where we will discuss Legal Aid's new Solo Practice Incubator Program. See more information about the program here or ask Laurie Ellen, leark@chapman.edu. Lunch will be provided. RSVP by Wednesday, October 8 at 5:00 p.m. to unnsyd@chapman.edu.

National Lawyers Guild General Meeting

The National Lawyers Guild is having a general meeting Tuesday, October 7, 2014 from 12 p.m. to 1 p.m. in Room 233. We will be finalizing our plans for fall activities and tentatively setting topics for spring presentations. Come add your input if you have activist issues you would like to see presented at Chapman.

National Lawyers Guild General Meeting

The Tax law society is hosting Ernst and Young at one of our speaker events for this academic term. Come learn about what it is like to work at a big four accounting firm and what opportunities are available for JD students. Tuesday, October 7 at 12:00 p.m. in Room 147. Food is provided!

CIA Presentation

Come learn about working with the CIA on Wednesday, October 8 at 11:45 a.m. in Room 142 to discuss how a law degree is beneficial in the agency. Lunch will be provided. RSVP to Michelle Nguyen in the Career Services Office.

Christian Law Student Society First General Meeting

The Christian Law Student Society (CLSS) will be having their first general meeting on Thursday, October 9th in Room 379 at 12:00 p.m. CLSS aims to provide support to law students at Chapman via fellowship and prayer. Please join us for our first small group meeting where we will be going over 1 Timothy 1 together. Contact chapmanchristiansociety@gmail.com if you have any questions.

Thursday, October 8

Lawyers without Rights Exhibit Opening and Reception, RSVP required, Lobby at 6:00 p.m. Bar Exam Fingerprinting, Student Lounge at 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Friday, October 9

First BARBRI Essay Workshop, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Lawyers without Rights Exhibit at Chapman

You are invited to attend the opening and reception of the Lawyers Without Rights exhibit on Monday, October 13, at 9:00 a.m. in the Kennedy Hall Lobby. Please RSVP here: https://lwwexhibit.eventbrite.com.

The exhibit was created by the German Federal Bar, and has been shown in over 80 cities worldwide and in the United States in conjunction with the American Bar Association. It depicts how Jewish lawyers and jurists were barred from German courts beginning in 1933, and how individual rights and the rule of law were obliterated during the Nazi era.

We hope you will join us for this special event.

Today and tomorrow, October 14 and 15, Mr. Frank Devenport will be here in the Student Lounge from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. both days. The cost for the LiveScan Fingerprinting is $21. He can also process an address search for you for $8. Remember that once your fingerprints are submitted, you have just 90 days to submit your Moral Character Application, so be sure to plan to complete your Moral Character Application no later than December 31, 2014 to be sure to avoid any timing issues with the State Bar and to be sure your Moral Character Application is successfully processed by the time the bar exam results are back. This is your only opportunity to have your fingerprinting done at the law school this calendar year. Mr. Davenport will not return to Chapman until February 2015.

Miss Your Dog? Visit Juneau On Tail-Wag Tuesdays!
Juneau has agreed to make weekly appearances for your delight (and her back scratching pleasure.) If you would like to take Juneau for a walk around campus or if you would just like to sit and pet her, please feel free to stop by Dean Kacer’s office on Tail-Wag Tuesdays.

Wednesday, October 15
Judicial Externship & Clerkship Panel
Interested in a judicial externship or post-grad clerkship? Attend the Judicial Externship & Clerkship Panel and Info Session on Wednesday Oct 15. Speakers will be law clerks and research attorneys representing the U.S. District Court, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, California Court of Appeal and Orange County Superior Court, all of which regularly take externs from Chapman. The speakers will share info on what judicial externs and clerks do and what they and their judges look for in law student applications. Free Pizza. Wed., Oct. 15th, 11:45 a.m.–1:00 p.m., 237A (Externship info is always available on TWEN under "Externship Program General Information").

MANDATORY Event for 1Ls & Transfer Students: Effective Professional Correspondence & Applications
Attention 1Ls & Transfer Students: The CSO will be hosting our second mandatory Professional Development Graduation Requirement event on "Effective Professional Correspondence and Applications" on Friday, October 17 from 11:45 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. in Room 237A&B. Please sign in before the event and do not be late as attendance counts. We suggest that you bring your lunch or eat before/after the event.

Saturday, October 18
First BARBRI Essay Workshop
"The first BARBRI Essay Workshop is being held Saturday, October 18, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon with Professor John Heilman. Professor Heilman, now of Southwestern Law School, used to co-teach the Whittier Law School bar prep program with Professor Mainero, and is an outstanding lecturer on how to write for the Bar Exam. Students who attend 4 of the 6 scheduled essay workshops will receive an additional discount off their BarBri tuition, but these workshops are extremely helpful in getting you thinking about writing for the bar exam in 2015. Please be sure not to miss this first workshop, and the workshops that follow: one more this semester, and four next semester."
