Last Edition of the WRIT

This will be the last edition of the WRIT for the academic 2013-2014 term. The WRIT will return to normal distribution on August 18. Have a great summer.

Attention 3Ls: Be A Seasonal Recruiter for Law School Admissions

The law school’s Admissions Office is seeking a full-time, seasonal recruiter to represent the law school at local, regional, and national recruiting and pre-law speaking events as needed, as well as administrative tasks at the law school. For a full description of responsibilities, please visit Symplicity. 3Ls who are interested in this opportunity should apply on Symplicity or e-mail your resume and cover letter to Marissa Tobias at mtobias@chapman.edu by May 2.

Professor Caso Is Seeking Summer 2014 Research Assistants

Professor Noyes is seeking two research assistants for the summer. Interested applicants should email their resumes to Professor Caso at caso@chapman.edu as soon as possible. Compensation is commensurate with your year in school.

Professor Lang Is Seeking A Summer 2014 Research Assistant

Professor Lang is seeking a research assistant for the summer. Applicants should have some tax background (at least a law school level course or pre-tax experience). Interest in professional responsibility is also encouraged. Completion of the professional responsibility course at Chapman will be considered but is not required. Interested applicants should email their resume to Professor Lang at mlang@chapman.edu as soon as possible. Compensation is commensurate with your year in school.

Professor Cao Is Seeking A Summer 2014 Research Assistant

Professor Cao is seeking a research assistant for the summer. The successful candidate will research on an international law subject (which also includes some U.S. legal history research), specifically the history of money, in particular, the U.S. dollar, and now, its use as an international currency. There is no prerequisite for applying. There will also be some bluebooking on a book manuscript to get it ready for publication. So knowledge of bluebooking rules is important. An interest in international issues is crucial. Interested applicants should email their resume and a copy of their transcript from WebAdvisor to Professor Cao at lcao@chapman.edu as soon as possible. Compensation is commensurate with your year in school.

Professor Gibbs Is Seeking A Summer 2014 Research Assistant

Professor Gibbs is seeking a research assistant for the summer. This position is a 10-15 hour a week commitment. Interested applicants should email their resume to Professor Gibbs at dgibbs@chapman.edu by May 9. Compensation is commensurate with your year in school.

2014-15 Financial Aid

If you have not already done so, please complete your 2014-15 FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Aid) as soon as possible. Returning students will not receive award letters until the end of April. Scholarships with GPA renewal stipulations will not be added to financial aid awards until after spring grades are posted in June. Students who renewed their merit scholarships will have their award eligibility revised at that time.

ACLU Student Chapter at Chapman Law

The American Civil Liberties Union Student Chapter is proud to announce its ratification as a student group at Chapman Law. The Board Election results are as follows:

President- Hamza Siddiqui
Vice-President - April Cristal
Secretary- Sherri Godfrey
Membership Coordinator - Michelina Perani

We will hold our first meeting this coming fall. If you have any questions or would like to join, please contact Hamza at siddi109@mail.chapman.edu or Michelina at peran101@mail.chapman.edu.

Library Usage Announcement

To better serve the needs of our students’ preparation for final exams, the Chapman Law Library will be restricting access. From May 1 - May 16 the Library will only allow Chapman Law School students access. No other users will be allowed to use the library. The library will then close for the weekend of May 17th and 18th. It will reopen and resume normal access on Monday May 19th.

Final Exam Library Hours: May 1 – May 15

For hours after May 15, please see the posted hours in the library.

WRIT Submissions

Submissions for the WRIT are due by 12 Noon on the Friday before you want your submission to be published. Please email your submissions to chapmanwrit@gmail.com
