Good News
Several of our colleagues travelled to the National Negotiation Competition at Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia this weekend. Chapman's Fowler School of Law fielded two teams, Seth Bowen (2L) and Matt Pellegrini (3L), and Nikki Nelson (2L) and Andrew Cummings (2L). Seth and Matt placed second overall, out of 16 teams. Special thanks go out to Professor David Dowling for helping to coach the teams and for traveling with them to Virginia.

Dodgers Stadium Tour
On Thursday, February 13 at 3:00 p.m., CESLS will be visiting Dodgers Stadium to meet with their general counsel, Sam Fernandez, and to take a behind the scenes tour of the stadium! A number of CESLS and BILS members participated in this event last year, and we hope to make this another successful year in attendance! CESLS will be organizing carpools for this event.

RSVP IS REQUIRED! If you are interested in attending, email CESLS President Chelsea McGuire (mcgu107@mail.chapman.edu) with (1) your name, (2) email address, (3) phone number, and (4) whether you need a ride, if you can drive and how many people you can drive, or will be providing your own transportation. More information to those who RSVP to follow.

Chapman Dialogue: War Powers Without War? The Surprisingly Slim Legal Significance of the Armed-Conflict Model of Counterterrorism
Professor Robert Chesney is the associate dean for academic affairs and the Charles I. Francis Professor in Law at the University of Texas School of Law. In addition, he is the Director-Designate of the Robert S. Strauss Center for International Security and Law. In 2009, Professor Chesney served in the Justice Department in connection with the Detention Policy Task Force created by Executive Order 13493. He also previously served the Intelligence Community as an associate member of the Intelligence Science Board and as a member of the Advanced Technology Board. In addition to his current positions at the University of Texas, he is a non-resident Senior Fellow of the Brookings Institution, a member of the American Law Institute, a senior editor for the Journal of National Security Law & Policy.

After law school he clerked for the Honorable Lewis A. Kaplan of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York and the Honorable Robert D. Sack of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. He then practiced with the firm Davis Pink & Wardwell in New York (Naples), before beginning his academic career.

To register for tickets please click here. Doors open at 11:45 a.m. and the presentation begins at 12:00 p.m.
