Welcome Ceremony
This opening session will begin with University administrators officially welcoming you to the Chapman University Community.

12:00 – 12:45 p.m.
Just for Families
This session will introduce you to student services that address and promote student safety, health and well-being. It will also explore the role of parents in the college transition process from a variety of perspectives.

1:00 – 2:00 pm
Family Lunch
Come enjoy a nice meal and spend time with other transfer families. Parents of current and former Chapman transfer students will speak and offer their thoughts on the University. You will also have the opportunity to ask questions and learn a bit more about being a part of the Panther family!

2:15 – 3:00 p.m.
Academic Partnerships
During this session, you will learn about the key student services that will help promote your student’s academic success at Chapman. Representatives from the Academic Advising Center, Tutoring, Learning, and Testing Center, Leatherby Libraries, Center for Global Education, Career Development Center, and the Center for Undergraduate Research will present information about their available resources.

3:15 – 4:00 p.m.
Student/Parent Panel and Closing
In this session, a panel consisting of current Chapman students and members of the Chapman Parents’ Council will answer questions and provide a unique insight into the university.
