

ENGAGING THE WORLD
LEADING
the conversation on Ethnic Studies

LECTURE SERIES

Irreverent Representations: From Reservation Dogs to 1491s
A Conversation with Ryan RedCorn

Thursday, November 17, 2022
1:00 p.m.

Location:

Argyros Forum 209A

Ryan RedCorn (Osage) is a Staff Writer for FX's hit TV show Reservation Dogs, a comedy-drama about four Native American teenagers in rural Oklahoma. RedCorn will talk about his experiences as a Native media creator through his work with Reservation Dogs, the Native comedy troupe 1491s, and his new short film Dead Bird Hearts - all three pieces that challenge stereotypical Native representations through satire and story. This event will include a screening of Dead Bird Hearts.

For more information on the Engaging the World series, scan the QR code or visit the link below

<https://www.chapman.edu/wilkinson/about/events/etw-ethnicstudies.aspx>